

April 25 Kindergarten News

Hello Parents!

I hope you all had a restful Easter break, and students are ready for this final stretch of the year.

Our Star of the Week is John!

Reminders:

This Tuesday is class picture day. Perfect uniform is required!

Curriculum:

Religion: We will learn more about the Ascension of Jesus, and the story of Creation.

Math: We will continue in our chapter on positional words.

Literacy: We will continue to read read read, and write write write!
Our new words this week are: off our day take too show
Please continue to practice these at home. We will be giving a mid-trimester test to all students on all words!

Science: Our theme this week will be Earth Week, and we will talk about ways to take care of God's beautiful creation.

Have a great week!
Mrs. Crockett
